FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Don Logan Keynote for Attorney General's Office of Victims' Services Event

(Phoenix, Ariz. – April 12, 2005) Attorney General Terry Goddard today will be joined by Don Logan, City of Scottsdale's diversity director, to dedicate the rose garden in front of the Arizona Attorney General's Office to commemorate National Victims' Rights Week. The event will be held at 1275 W. Washington and begins at 10:30 a.m.

Goddard will honor staff members from the Attorney General's Office who have significantly contributed to victims' rights and interests. Logan will be the keynote speaker for this service. Logan was the victim of a mail bomb sent to the City of Scottsdale in 2004. He was recently named the 2005 Image Award for Civil Rights by the Maricopa County chapter of the NAACP, and will be honored at the Image Awards Dinner on April 15.
